

Centre Investigator's Seminar

Wednesday 26th November 2014, 14:00 to 17:45

Cockburn Lecture Theatre, Second Floor, Queen Elizabeth Queen Mother Building (QEQM), St Mary's Hospital, South Wharf Road, London W2 1NY

Updates on Exposomics, i.e. the Exposome in practice

Session 1 (chaired by Frank Kelly)

- 14:00 – 14:30 Exposomics: a hybrid study design, and causal interpretation
Paolo Vineis
- 14:30 – 15:00 Personal Exposure Monitoring in Exposomics: what does it add?
John Gulliver
- 15:00 – 15:30 Oxford Street 2, first results
Paul Cullinan
- 15:30 – 15:45 Tea/Coffee/Refreshment break

Session 2 (chaired by Paul Elliott)

- 15:45 – 16:15 Data analysis and bioinformatics in Exposomics and related projects
Marc Chadeau-Hyam
- 16:15 – 16:45 Epigenetics and air pollution in Epigenair and Alspac
Michelle Plusquin
- 16:45 – 17:15 Metabolomics: first results from Piscina, Tapas2 and Alspac
Karin VanVeldhoven and Florence Guida
- 17:15 – 17:45 Adductomics, first results from the Piscina and Tapas2 studies
David Phillips
- 17:45 Drinks reception

*Centre's Investigators seminars are aimed at showcasing the work of the various research groups within the Centre in order to foster within-centre cohesiveness and cross-centre collaboration. Everyone is welcomed to these seminars